THE FOUNDER'S STORY

A Life of Resilience, Family and Purpose

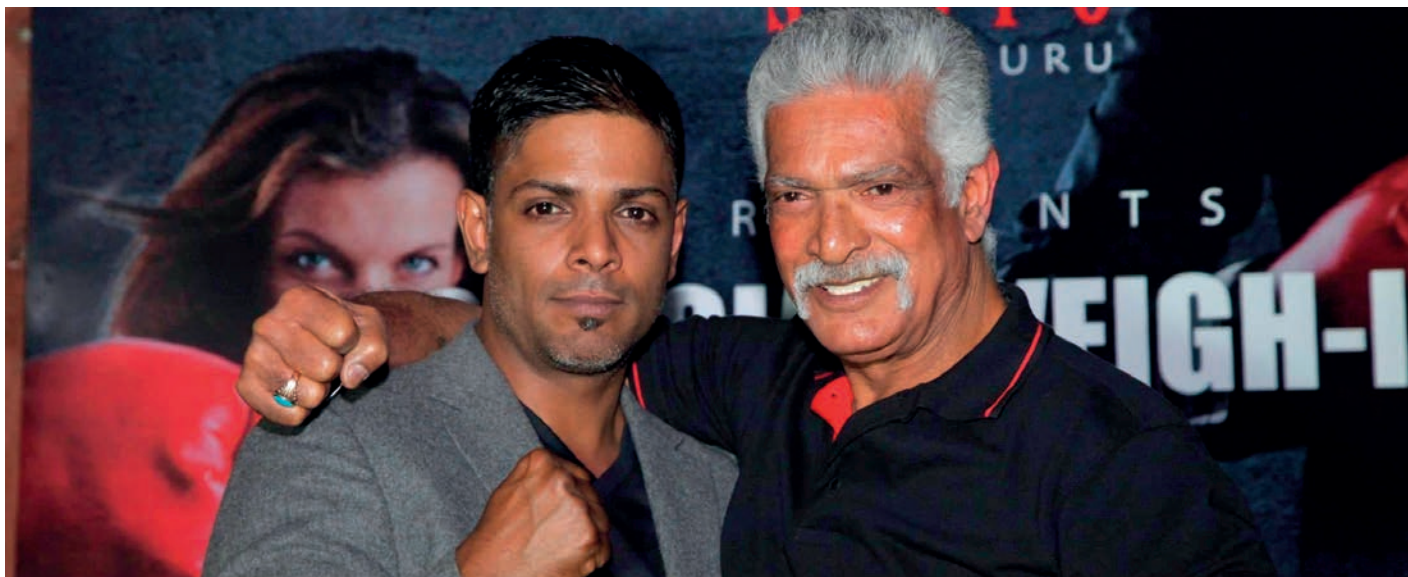

Life has always beckoned me to embrace its adventures with courage. From the thrill of boxing, horse riding to the adrenaline of competing in MotoGP, snowboarding and skydiving, I have consistently sought challenges that push the limits of possibility.

However, on March 25, 2022, everything changed in an instant. While skydiving at 12,500 feet, my parachute failed to deploy, leading to a crash landing on a highway. The aftermath was devastating—both my legs were shattered. Yet, against all odds, I miraculously survived.

The subsequent two years tested my resilience in unimaginable ways. Enduring eight surgeries and countless rehabilitation efforts, I faced a heart-wrenching decision. In July 2024, I chose to undergo amputation—not merely a loss, but a courageous and powerful act of reclaiming my life for myself, my family, and our shared future.

It was during my hospital stay in 2022, amidst the uncertainty of recovery that I found clarity and purpose. I recognized that my primary responsibility and duty became clear, to ensure a secure future for my children regardless of the hurdles. This realization became the cornerstone of my mission in creating our family office hedge fund. Over the next couple of years, I meticulously curated a team that shared my core belief – Family First.

Following my amputation on July 25 2024, I encountered many individuals grappling with unforeseen life challenges often relying on their savings and insurance for support. Their stories motivated my ambition to expand MAPSIGMA CAPITAL beyond my family, welcoming likeminded individuals those who prioritise stability, growth and security for their family and loved ones.

“ We are MAPSIGMA CAPITAL— where family is the cornerstone of all that we achieve and pursue. ”

AUSTIN PRAKESH

At MAPSIGMA CAPITAL, our mission revolves around the values of family. Each decision we make and every risk we undertake is anchored in the commitment to achieve sustainable, healthy return - not just for today but for future generations. This endeavour is not merely about establishing a hedge fund, it's about cultivating a lasting LEGACY.

We envision a future where our investors thrive across multiple generations, aspiring to create one of the largest customer-centric hedge funds globally. MAPSIGMA CAPITAL represents more than a business; it embodies a promise. A promise to my family, to our investors, and to everyone who places their trust in our vision for the future. Our firm stands as a testament to resilience, purpose and enduring strength of family value, driven and strengthened by the unwavering bond of family.
